

Summer School

North London
Grammar School

2020

Welcome

If you're keen to expand on your English language studies and want to explore a new city, North London Summer School is the ideal place to start. With a range of different programmes, there is something for everyone.

The corner stone of our summer school is getting students practicing their spoken English. Pupils know that if they need something, whether to ask for more bread at breakfast, or ask for directions, they will need to jump in and try doing so in the English language. After completing summer course every student's ability to speak English language will have improved substantially.

At NLGSS, we create an environment where students, staff and visitors have the opportunity to learn from and respect other diverse cultures. If you're thinking to study in the UK now or for higher education, the summer courses are an ideal preparation for transition to British education and culture. We offer different programmes suited for everyone's needs, whether you want a full course of excursions and activities or an intense academic boost to your learning. Our course duration is two weeks, if you would like to extend the programme you may directly call us and speak to our summer school coordinator.

Accommodation

Our boarding facilities come with everything needed to make a home away from home. The dormitory is located at the top of North London Grammar School. Our bedrooms are well equipped with new furniture and have a recreational room, a common room, a quiet room, library, TV and game consoles. Please note that students must bring their own towels and converters. Other facilities include on-site laundry and Wi-Fi. There are supervisors who will live in the accommodation with you during your stay at NLGS boarding. Our supervisors will provide you with support and help you throughout the programme.

Other facilities

We offer an alternative accommodation at the Stay Club; 10 minutes walk from our campus. For pupils who prefer more privacy, this is a great choice. There are different room options such as twin room, triple room and quad room. The Stay Club Colindale contains large communal areas to study or chill out with friends. Social spaces include a spacious student lounge complete with smart-TV's, pool table and external deck. Other facilities include on-site laundry, bike storage, high-speed Wi-Fi, 24/7 security.

What to expect ?

Students are expected to be ready on time accordingly so they are not late for morning lessons. It is the responsibility of the supervisor to ensure that students make there way to school on time. Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner will be served in school. There will be entertaining evening activities organised by our team at the school, this is optional but we advise students to participate in these to build relationships and maximize their English outside the classroom.
